To the Electoral Distribution Commissioners.

While your Proposals, are not what I would have wished, am very pleased that you stuck to the Spirit of the Australian Constitution, in that the smaller populated areas, do have an equal say, in the Upper House [Senate & Legislative Council] Thank you.

My only point is the naming of the combination of; Avon & Merredin, why not Avon? As a compromise, the preference would seem to be "Wheat Belt" and appropriate as the Central Wheat Belt, seems to take up some 70% of the area and would, in my opinion, have none or very few complaints, as would either of the other two choices.

Once again, my congratulations, on a well-done, difficult assignment.
