Good Afternoon

I wish to express my objection to the boundaries proposed by the Redistribution Commission. I am a current Moore electorate resident.

By abolishing another regional seat and replacing it with a new city seat, further removing regional voices from Parliament, the Commission is fulfilling the desire of the Labor Party to further diminish the voices of the hard-working regional West Australians, like us, who create the wealth of this state.

Please help keep our sixteen regional seats by retaining our current boundaries.

Thank you for your time.

Glenn Richards
