Subject: Electoral boundaries

Hi,
It's concerning that your proposed electoral boundaries for the Pilbara no longer include all four pilbara shires. The Ashburton shire is part of the Pilbara, as too all of the East Pilbara shire (now it's split in two! And is not the Kimberley). That's dilution of an entire region, how can it even still be called the Pilbara electorate if it's not including all of the Pilbara?
