Hi

I find cutting the North West electorate and giving another seat to the city, is against any fairness left for the country taxpayers, who are out here growing the states wealth and food.

We will see more government services decline, how does that help the city tourists when they visit and locals. It such a big electorate already it seems madness to make it bigger for one politician to manage, yet you can run a electorate in the city managing a handful of suburbs with little or no industries to support.

Kind Regards
