I strongly object to the proposed amalgamation of regional Moore district into a metropolitan electorate. This could only have even got to this stage with the inequitable advantage of numbers by Labour at the moment at our state level, and is obviously aimed at eliminating OUR local voice here in the shire of Chittering, aka Moore. This was further evidenced with the recent State government backflip on the Aboriginal Cultural heritage Act laws that threatened the long held abilities of landholders to farm/ work on their land as they see fit. It was corrupt and full of litigation holes, with the prospect of creating an apartheid- type system in western Australia. This merge prospect is likewise, diminishing the voice of regional folk. Shane Love is obviously passionate about this/our electorate, this merge is seeking to simply eliminate him AND our different perspective on issues relating to rural/ semi- rural business activities and lifestyles.
