To whom it may concern

I would like to have my objections recorded surrounding the axing of another rural seat/electoral boundary in place of another metro one.

Rural WA is seriously under represented now with McGowan's voting reform, and really doesn't have any swing left in the state. Already the members can't represent their whole rural areas, not to mention the broad range of representation, from indigenous, to mining, to pastoral, to farming, to residential, to industrial, and the list goes on. The members cannot lobby for all of their constituents effectively and knowledgeably.

We actually need to reverse McGowan's reform and introduce more seats back to rural WA. Industries outside of the city are being governed by city decisions with little to no understanding of the industry they are effecting.

I completely object to the removal of another seat.

Regards
Keith Swann
